

ALEXANDRIA LISTS HOLDERS OF STOCK

Commissioners of Revenue Sent
In Record for Use in Taxing
Personal Property.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 15.—The State authorities, in their efforts to obtain full returns from all intangible personal property for the purpose of taxation, have received from the corporation commissions of the various States lists of stockholders of companies in their jurisdiction who are liable for taxation in the State of Virginia. From these lists C. Lee Moore, State auditor, has compiled a list of all Virginians holding stock in corporations whose legal domicile is without the State. The commissions of revenue of the various cities and counties and the examiners of records of the various judicial circuits have received copies of this list, and are now comparing the names with the tax lists to see that the value of the stock held is properly returned by the holder.

Copies have been received here by Charles H. Callahan, commissioner of revenue, and W. N. Lippcomb, examiner of records, and they are said to show a large number of Alexandrians who hold stock in railroad, industrial, and mining companies throughout the United States.

C. C. Lamond entertained the members of the Alexandria Automobile Club at his home on Washington Pike last night. Automobiles containing the members and their friends formed at King and Washington streets, and then proceeded up King street to the Union Station, thence returning down King to Royal, out Royal to Cameron, west on Cameron to Washington, and out Washington to the Lamond residence. After making an inspection of the terra cotta works owned by Mr. Lamond, the guests were entertained at a smoker.

At the monthly meeting of the board of police commissioners last night John T. Sweeney, who was elected to the board Tuesday night, took the oath of office. The board decided to have the rules and regulations for the government of the police force printed, but the rules will be revised before this is done. The monthly report of Chief of Police Goode showed there were 148 arrests since his last report.

Funeral services for Miss Cora McDonald, daughter of Bayless McDonald, who died Tuesday night at her home in Del Ray, were held today and were conducted by the Rev. G. H. Payne, pastor of the Del Ray Baptist Church.

Funeral services for Thomas M. Silcox were held this afternoon from his late residence, 111 South West street, and were conducted by the Rev. W. F. Watson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church. Interment was in the Bethel Cemetery.

An unoccupied stable in the rear of a house on Oregon street, between Oregon and Prince Georges streets, was partly destroyed by fire last night. The blaze is supposed to have been started by tramps.

The circuit court with Judge J. B. F. Thornton presiding, will be convened tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Later in the day it is expected that Judge Thornton will close the court for the term.

Preparedness Urged By President of Princeton

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—"Preparedness, and again preparedness, is the only sane course open to the United States, not for war, but against war." This subject—preparedness against war—overtook all others in view of this country's position in the international arena, is the opinion of John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University and friend of President Wilson.
